Fall Ordeal

Fall Ordeal is always an amazing event but this year we aim to surpass even that high standard. At Fall Ordeal we always accomplish many helpful service projects for our community in keeping with Aal-Pa-Tah tradition. We party as hard as we work. To welcome our newly inducted members into our Brotherhood, we are going to have human battleship, human foosball, free swing, room hockey, trash can, board game, and much more. We are looking forward to an awesome ceremony on Friday night and Saturday night. The theme for this OA weekend being Ninja Turtles we will be having a spectacular food prepared by our awesome kitchen staff. Best of all we will be having a legendary 237 Surprise! This weekend is going to be one of the best OA weekends ever and I encourage you all to come out. I can't wait to see you all there! Sign up today and let's make this a weekend for the record books.

Chiefly Speaking

My Brothers,

Over these past few years, Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge has done great things for others, as well as ourselves. We have upped our Cheerful Service to camp, advanced our membership, won competitions and grew internally. The past generations of Aal-Pa-Tah Brothers have set the bar HIGH for us, but I'm sure that we can push it even higher if we all work together.

Summer Camp and LLD are just behind us. T.K. Summer Camp saw Aal-Pa-Tah every Wednesday, when we OA day and hosted the Hitchiti Dancers. Our Lodge saw four new Brotherhood members seal their membership. It was a good summer, and both Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge #237 and T.K. Summer Camp.

Enough about the past, let us take a look into the future. September 26th - 28th is the Fall Ordeal at T.K. I hope to see everyone in attendance. Fall Ordeal isn't all about hard work (no tents!); for members, we have tons of fun things planned for every day. We will have games, food, competitions and many other events that will be great, plus we get to have this fellowship with our newest Brothers. If you are looking for a Black Sash, sign up to be an Elangomat with Evertt P. or Evan Reif (lodge237@gmail.com), it takes only three times as an Elangomat to earn your Black Sash. As with all events registration can be done in seconds on our Lodge website (www.aal-pa-tah237.org) or by calling the Council Office. See you there!

The Section Leadership Summit is just around the corner! We will be hosting Section Leadership Summit at T.K. It will be a weekend of sessions as well as fellowship with other Lodges of S-4. Section Leadership Summit is one or two times each year that our Section comes together for fellowship.

Join me at the Ordeal, Seminars, and all other Lodge events. This year we will take what greatness we've done in the past and build upon it since we are again the BEST Lodge, ALL-AROUND! Until Ordeal, be safe in Brotherhood, Cheerfulness and Service. See you at Ordeal.

Adviser's Minute

I don't know of an organization that has more training than the Scouting program. I remember signing up as a leader many years ago and attending Fast Start, Youth Protection and Leader Specific Training at a great event hosted by our district. Over the years I have been to many, many, many training events –some so-so and some great. The ones that stand out in my mind are Pow Wow as a Cub Scout Leader as there were so many fun and interesting sessions! (Thanks Mrs. Maharrey!) Outdoor Leader Skills with Tom Pendergast was truly a stellar event in my training repertoire. And finally there was Wood Badge. I went to Wood Badge kicking and screaming...I did NOT want to go. At the time I had three young boys at home, worked part time and was a Troop Leader and a Committee Chair of both a Pack and a Troop. No way in heck did I have time for that sort of thing. I also thought that Wood Badge, being the "premier training program", probably applied to more important leaders in the Scouting Program, not me. But previous Wood Badgers (including my husband) pressured me to go, so I did. And boy I am glad I did!!!

I was on SR707 with Bob Kenyon as my Course Director. It was an exceptional experience!!!! It is difficult to adequately put into words, but the word "inspirational" comes to mind. As I was driving home from the second weekend (from Abalufa), I truly thought to myself "I get it!" The next year I was lucky enough to be asked to be on Lady Jane's staff and have had the great honor to serve on staff for 9 consecutive years. This year will be my 10th year and as Course Director, it will be my last.

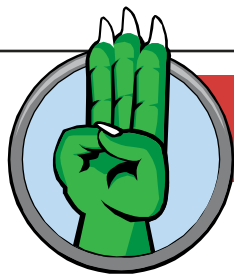

I have found the lessons and spirit of Wood Badge have spilled over into all areas of my life. I believe it has made me a better leader and even a better parent and spouse. I am certain I would never have been a Lodge Adviser or small business owner without all the knowledge, confidence and inspiration shared with me by all of the great leaders and participants I have had the honor of working with over the years. So... this year..... do it!!!! You will be so very glad you did!

Section Leadership Summit

Brothers,

We are two months away from hosting the FIRST EVER Section Leadership Summit! Section Leadership Summit (SLS) has taken the place of Section Seminars. Like all Section Events, the Host Lodge changes each year. APT has been chosen as the Lodge to host this new training experience. SLS has been developed through a lot of thought, time and effort from myself, Crawford Teets, and Dan Olbrych and the entire COC from across the Section. This will be an event like no other. If you have attended a Section Seminar in the past, THIS IS NOT THAT SAME EVENT!!! Better Trainings, More Program, it will be like an Aal-Pa-Tah Weekend, just with EVERYONE from the Section! But, Dan, Crawford, and I cannot do this alone. WE NEED YOU! We are in search of more youth Arrowman to help on different committees for the event. We have a job that will suit everyone, from Program, to Service, to Administration, to Shows, to Food Service, to just being a normal member attending an event! We can find a spot for YOU! Email me at lodge237@gmail.com or call/text me at 561-267-8759. There are all types of youth positions still available. We need YOUR help in making this a successful event for Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge.

Registration for this event will be open on the Lodge website in the next few weeks. Please watch your email as we will email out when this is open. In the meantime, it is important to know that Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge has set its member registration at $45. This covers the Sections SLS registration fee, a HOST T-Shirt and Patch, a SLS Patch, and many more surprises and fun!

There will also be an SLS online Trading Post that will be taking Pre-Orders. Please be on the lookout for that in order to get the inaugural SLS merchandise.

So, you see, with the event being 2 months away, there really is no excuse NOT to attend. SLS will be hosted at Tanah Keeta Scout Reservation November 7th- 9th. See you all there and please email me with any questions. Let us Rekindle the Fire.

Canadian Odyssey in Review

This summer, four of our Arrowmen from Aal-Pa-Tah embarked on a two week long experience in the remote Canadian wilderness with our Brothers from across the nation called the OA Canadian Odyssey. Matt Jones, Josh Ott, Matthew Mirandi, and Tommy Wilson had a life changing and worthwhile experience on those lakes with long portages and paddles mixed with fun and engaging discussions and reflection. Lifelong bonds were formed and experience and self knowledge they will carry with them for the rest of their lives was earned. It followed the general theme of OA High Adventure Camps where we combine our service with adventure. They spent a week hard manual labor making portage trails and improving them for others and then left on their long canoe voyage across a series of gorgeous crystal clear lakes. The Order of the Arrow offers these extraordinary experiences to Arrowmen for a reduced cost than going as a Scout and are a bargain. Seriously consider going to any of the High Adventure Programs if you've been in the Order a while or just joined.

"Listening to my crewmates share their personal struggles with identity and self-esteem profoundly affected me. And these stories compelled me to take a critical look at myself."

"I will always be grateful for my brothers. "

Inductions and Our New Brothers

Hello my Brothers,

As we approach the season of inducting new members into our order, I would ask each of you to reach out to a member of your troop who doesn't regularly go to OA events or just got inducted and bring them to a weekend or service day. Make that personal connection with someone that made you want to stay in the order. Be a brother. Although our focus is on service, we also focus on brotherhood. Brotherhood is how we grow our organization so that we may better serve our camp and council.

To do this, come out to Fall Ordeal, be an elangomat, or seek out our new brothers and show them what the OA is all about. We want to work on retaining our members and keeping them involved so that they learn and grow here so that they may be better servant leaders. Meet and encourage inactive members and make sure the newly inducted members stay active. Help make our organization fun and speak up if you have ideas on how we can improve our change. Our lodge is very unique and I would not want to deprive anyone of our unique bond of brotherhood and service.
