

The OFFICIAL Publication of Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge #237, Order of the Arrow

GATOR TALES

New Member Edition

September 2000

Dear Brothers, for now I am permitted to hail you as such, congratulations on taking your first step down the path of cheerful service. Your selection as a candidate for the Order was a reflection of how your fellow scouts view you; that you truly embody the Scout Oath and Law. Having completed your Ordeal, you have proven back to them that they were right about your devotion to the high ideals of Scouting; you are now an Arrowman and bear the Obligation which carries a tradition of over 85 years of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service.

The purpose of this publication is to familiarize you with the basics of being an Arrowman in Aal-Pa-Tah: who's who, the structure of the lodge, who to contact to become involved in specific committees within the lodge, a list of OA events outside of the lodge, and more importantly, making the journey into Brotherhood. Again, the information provided here is simply a "starter kit" and is not a definitive list of everything there is to being an Arrowman. For further knowledge (such as an interpretation of your Ordeal which you have just completed), consult your Order of the Arrow Handbook given to you or ask some of the older brothers within the lodge.

The LEC

The Lodge Executive Committee (LEC) is comprised of the 6 executive chairmen and 35 sub-chairmen, all of which are youths and are paired with an adult advisor, who run every facet of the lodge. The current executive chairmen are: Lodge Chief – Brad Ellis, Lodge Vice Chief – Chris Smith, Lodge Secretary – Mike Griffiths, Lodge Treasurer – Chris Montgomery, Lodge Historian – Terrance Dickson, and Past Lodge Chief - Stephen Brown.

The Chapter System

Just as each council is broken down into districts, each OA Lodge is separated into smaller units called chapters. Each chapter has a chief whom is as a voting member on the LEC and who reports directly to the Lodge Chief and Vice Chief. Each chapter camps together during lodge events, competes against other chapters at lodge events, and will also carry out separate chapter functions outside of the lodge schedule such as: meetings, dinners, service projects, and even campouts. A listing of the chapters by their prospective districts, along with the contact information for each chief and advisor, is given on the back of this page, as well as is the information for the executive chairmen and their advisors.

OA Events Beyond the Lodge

In addition to the numerous lodge and chapter activities that take place throughout the year, there are several events at the Section and National level in which every Arrowman should participate:

- I. Section Conference is an annual event during which the 13 lodges that form our section (Section S-4) gather for a weekend chalk full of friendship and fellowship. This year the conference will be hosted by Timuquan lodge out of Tampa during the weekend of April 20th – 22nd. Call council and reserve your spot right away.
- II. Section Seminars is another annual gathering of Section S-4 aimed at the purpose of training members of each lodge on how to better improve their lodge's program, while at the same time meeting brothers from across the section in a weekend filled of the spirit of the Order. This year Section Seminars is hosted by our very own lodge, Aal-Pa-Tah, on the weekend of November 3rd – 5th. Previous members will serve as host corps for the event, while you (the new members) will participate in the event just as all of our other guests. Call council ASAP to register.

III. The National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) is a biannual gathering of Arrowmen from each lodge across the nation. The event usually lasts approximately five days and, in conjunction with the many side trips our contingent usually makes (i.e. Six Flags, caving, white-water rafting, etc..), it is perhaps the most awesome experience a member of the OA can possibly go through. The next NOAC will be held at the University of Indiana in 2002. For more information of NOACs past and future, check the Official NOAC web site at:

Sealing Your Membership

Having completed your Ordeal, you are now an Ordeal member of the Order of the Arrow, yet your membership in the OA has yet to be sealed. There is much more that have to learn about yourself and the Order as you make your journey down the path of Cheerful Service; obtaining Brotherhood status is the next step along your journey. The requirements for Brotherhood are:

- 1) Be an Ordeal member for at least 10 months.
- 2) Know the Song of the Order.
- 3) Know the Obligation of the Order.
- 4) Write a letter to the lodge secretary detailing what being an Arrowman means to you and your future plans for involvement in the lodge.

In the days ahead, reflect upon your Ordeal, grasp the spirit of the Order, complete these 4 tasks, and you will find yourself once again before Allowat Sakima.
